BOARD OF EDUCATION

As you graduate from these halls of learning in the springtime of youth, I would counsel you to believe in yourself and in the great ideals upon which our Nation is founded; to love your work; to put unlimited energy and zest in everything you do; and to make your life rich in service to your fellowmen. May you be blessed with good health, happiness, and prosperity.

—James McKinnon Smith.

BOARD OF CONTROL

The Board of Control was formed in 1925 for the purpose of acquainting the faculty and the students with the athletic problems of the school. It consists of Superintendent James M. Smith, three members of the faculty, and three members of the student body.

At the meeting held on October 26, to discuss plans for the annual football banquet, Mr. William Sterling, chairman for the past nine years, resigned and Mr. Edward Flink, athletic director, was elected chairman.

The Board of Control sponsored the annual football banquet held in the school cafeteria on November 23. The food was cooked and served in an appetizing manner by Miss Mehnert and the girls from the home economics department. George Riley acted as toastmaster; the guest speaker was Mr. Waldo Fisher, end coach at Northwestern University. Short talks were also given by Mr. Smith, Mr. Flink, Mr. Lindberg, and Ray Johnson. The main feature of the evening was the presentation of letters to 44 athletes. Joe Johnson was elected captain for the 1938 season, succeeding his brother Ray Johnson, this year's captain.

HEAVYWEIGHT FOOTBALL

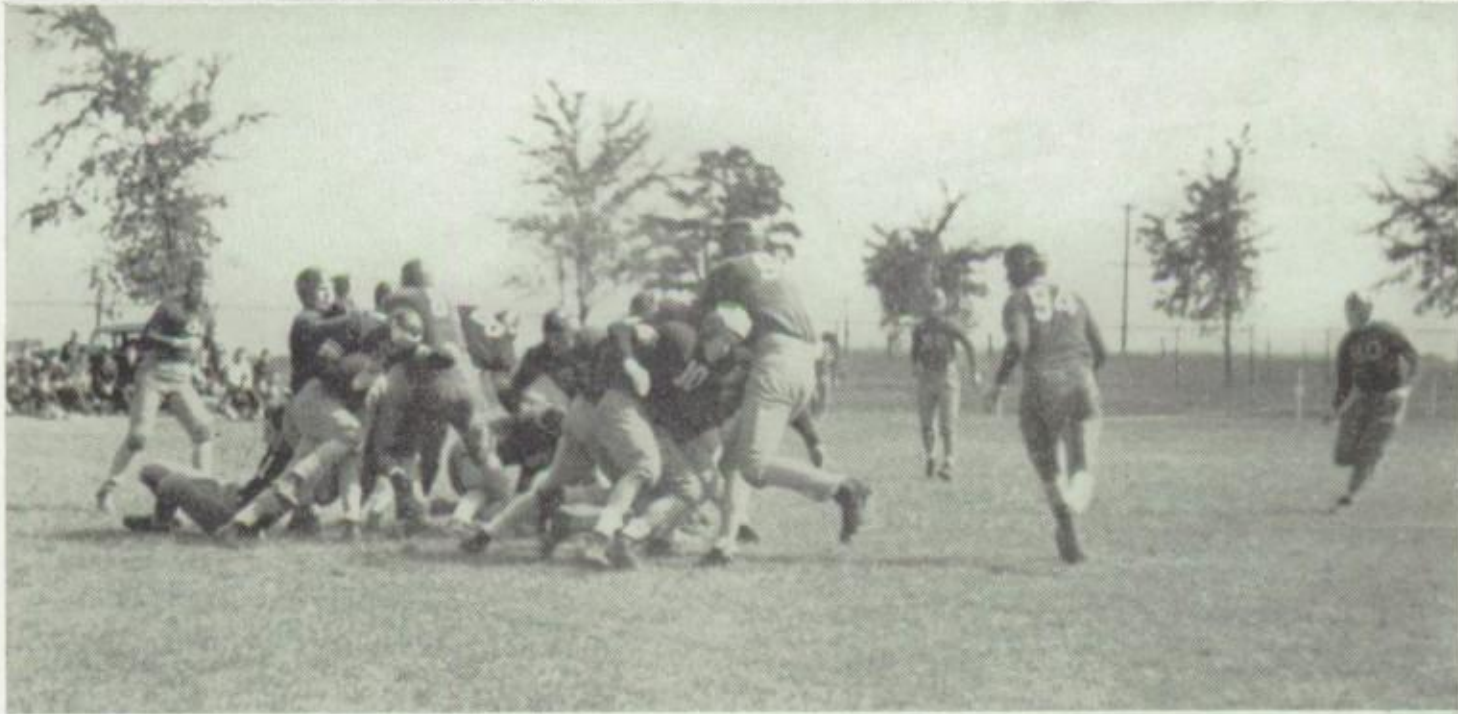

Lockport had a fairly successful football season for 1937, with four wins, three losses, and one tie, for the percentage of .571. Lockport's opponents scored 96 points to the Maroon's 59.

Lockport will suffer the loss of the following lettermen: Acord; Allison, J.; Carlstrom, J.; Goss; Johnson, R.; Johnson, W.; and Williams. Next year's team will have the following veterans returning: Bruce; Devine; Dobbs; Egizio; Johnson, A.; Johnson, J.; Lif; McCarthy; McGuire; Paunovich; Sharp; and Sluski.

LIGHTWEIGHT FOOTBALL

Speaking of undefeated football teams for the 1937 season, look at our L. T. H. S. lights. They went through the season with two ties and six victories.

On September 25, the Lockport lights were hosts to Hinsdale in a curtain raising game. Score: Lockport 0-Hinsdale 0.

On October 5, they journeyed to Blue Island and through spectacular running on the part of Bills, half, together with Clint Carlstrom and Earl Carlson's pass snatching ability defeated the hosts 24-0.

On October 11 this hardy crew invaded Downers Grove, and on the first play of the game Bills dashed 60 yards, aided by a timely block by Ray Boland, for the first score. Bills, Carlstrom, and Fred Anderson later scored touchdowns in the game. Final: L. T. H. S. 24-Downers 6.

In a return game played at Lockport with Blue Island on October 15, Don Lloyd went over from the 5-yard line for the only score of the game.

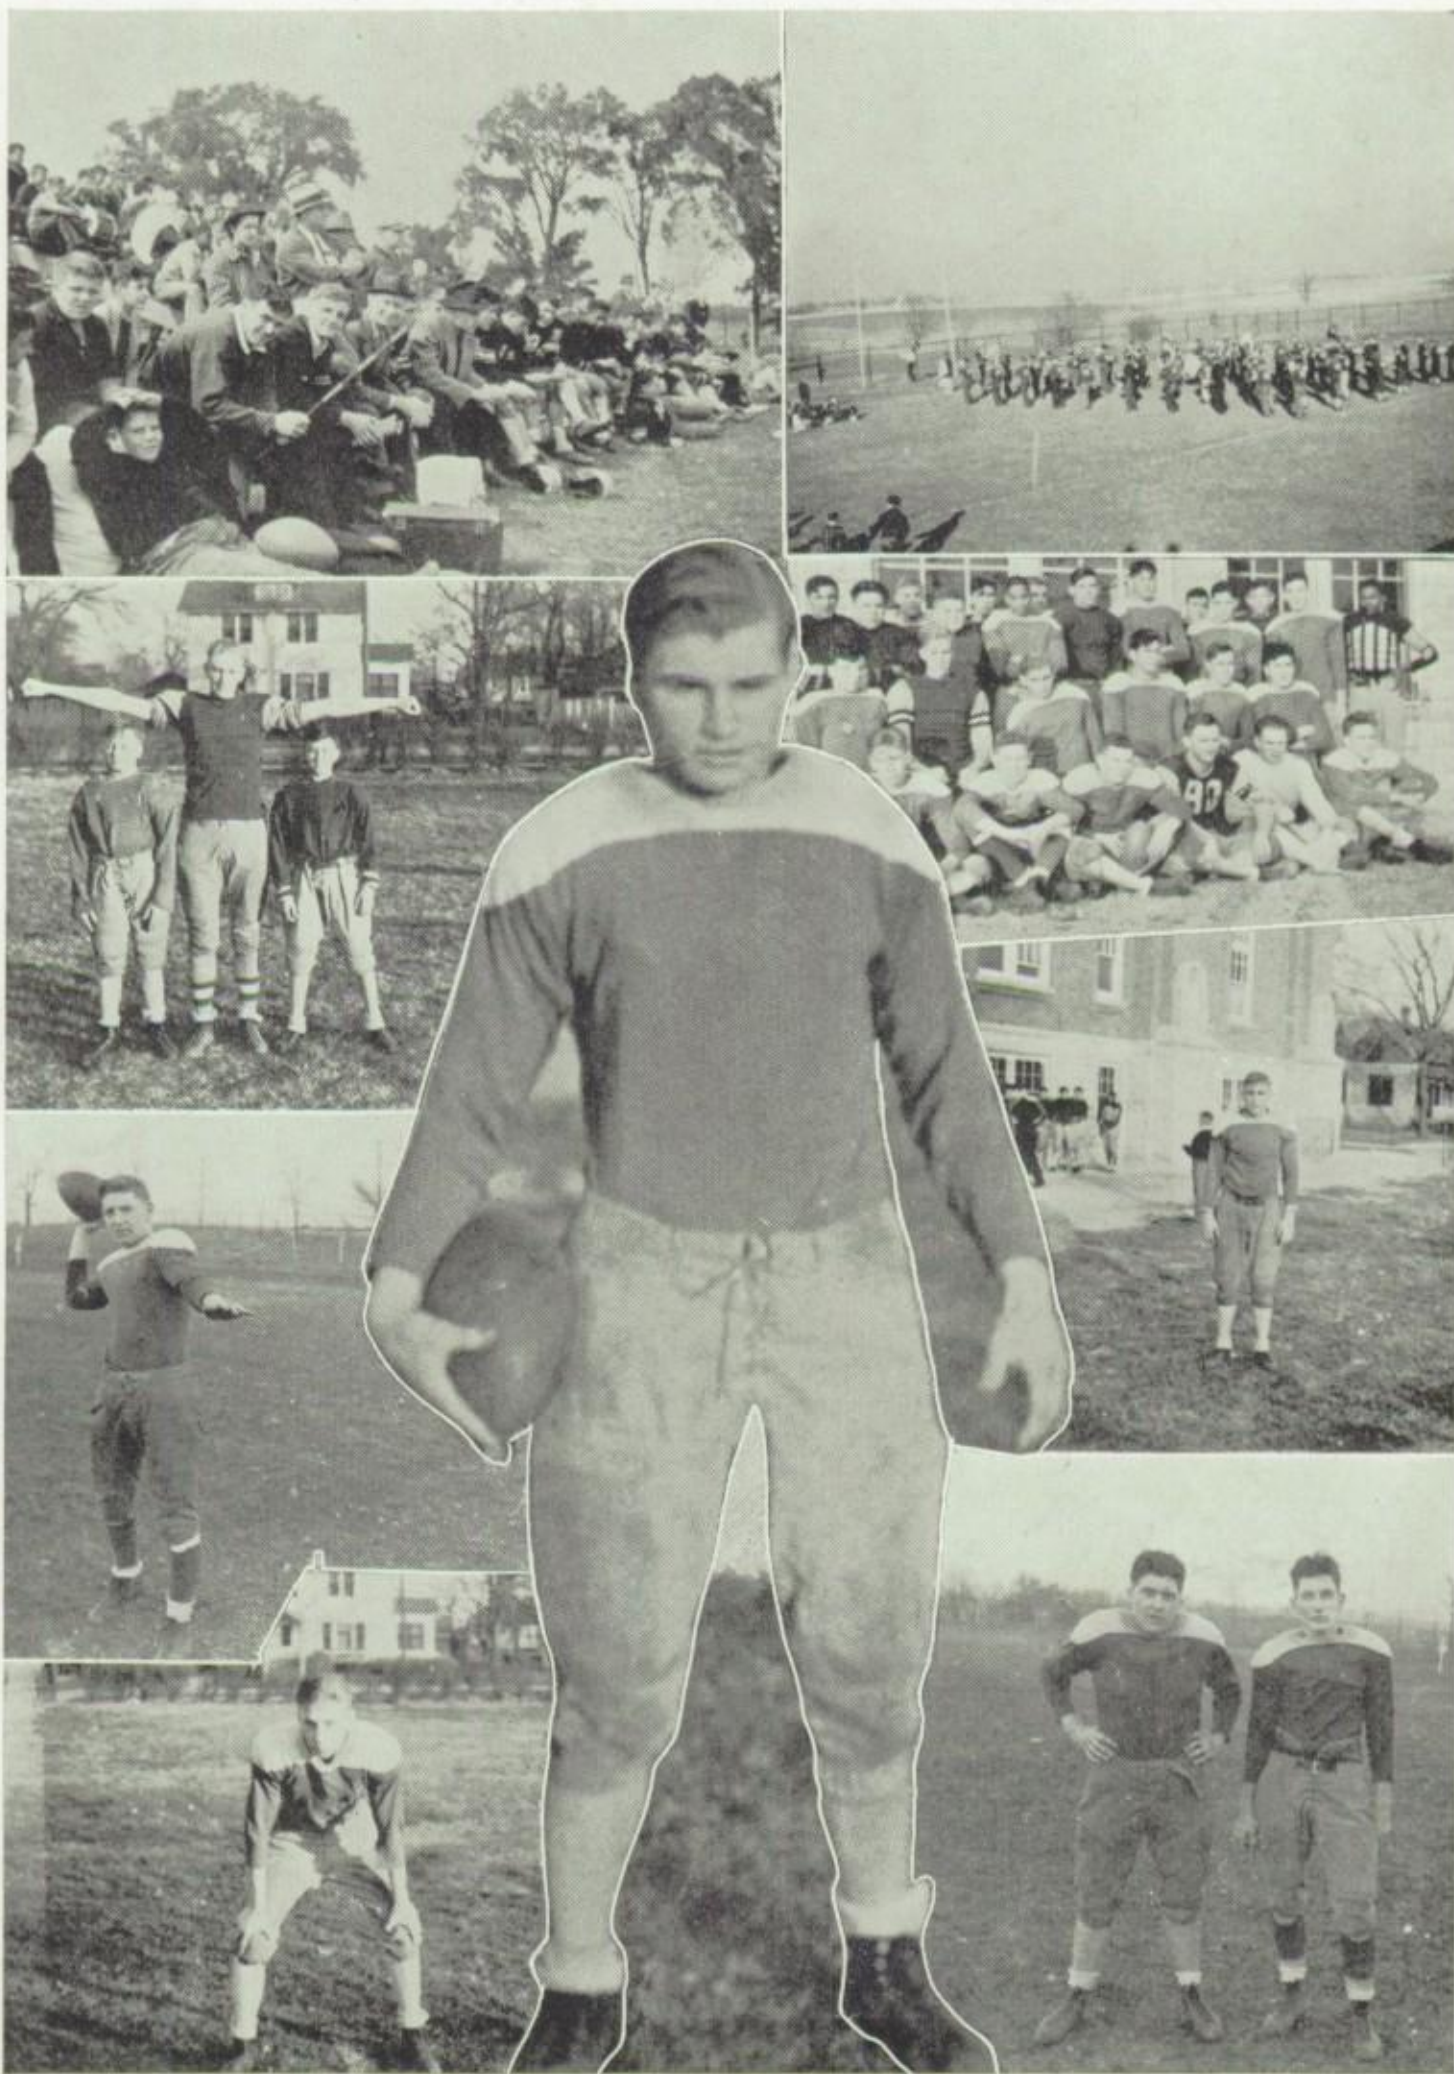

Joliet "B" lights were treated to an 18-0 trouncing on the local field on October 18. Scores were made by Bills and Clint Carlstrom.

On October 21, the second scoreless tie was played at Argo.

The lights journeyed to Joliet on October 25, to win a spectacular victory in the closing seconds of the last quarter. Porter drove over from the 5-yard line and a forward pass, Ludwig to Kiowski, scored the extra point.

Winding up the season on November 1, the lights defeated Argo in a return game, 12-0, with Porter making both scores.

In compiling this record it is noticeable that only two opponents were successful in crossing the Lockport goal. This can be credited to a very stalwart line composed of Ray Boland, Alex Samusevich, Clint Carlstrom, Wm. Borman, Bob Thomas, Earl Fox, Willard Johnson, George Kiowski, Tom Konicek, Earl Kopelman, Bob McDonald, Bob Morris, Bob Reed, and Dick Skinner.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Girls' Athletic Association was formed at L. T. H. S. in 1929 with a total enrollment of seventy-five. In 1937-38 the membership was one hundred and thirty.

The object of the association is to stimulate interest in girls' athletics and to promote ideals of health and sportsmanship. Awards given for work done in the league are numerals, letters, league awards, and league emblems. In order to obtain these awards, girls gain points for all activities in which they take a part.

Officers chosen for 1937-38 were: president, Agnes Anderson; vice president, Rita Rosier; treasurer, Virgie Kilmer; and secretary, Gladys Kettering.

Important events of the year were initiation, volley ball tournament, basketball tournament, and basketball shooting contest.

Mr. Reed "urges" a few wallflowers.

LITERARY SOCIETY

The purpose of the Literary Society is to provide entertainment with an educational value for the student body of the school. A representative of each class is elected as an officer to the society. Officers this year were: Ray Boland, president; James Adelmann, vice president; Fred Hartmann, secretary; and Kenneth Anderson, treasurer.

The students are entertained about once each month with programs consisting of outside talent selected by the Literary Society. For the first literary program, September 22, the Brown-Meneley duo presented a musical program. The program consisted of vocal, vibraharp, and saxophone solos.

Mr. Bob Hanscom entertained with his sketches from "A Tale of Two Cities" on November 30.

On January 4, the play, "Here Comes Juliet," was given by the Gingles Players.

The entertainment on February 14, consisted of songs by the Mississippian Singers.

On March 23, Mr. Luther Gable gave a very interesting talk on radium.

The last literary program of the year was presented on May 23, and was entitled "The Mikado."

HE HAD A PAST

HE HAD A PAST by Wall Spence was given November 19, by the Junior Class. This three act farce under the direction of Mr. A. L. Johnsonius was presented to a full house.

Uncle Homer—of the Purity League.....

..... Alvin Goodale

Mrs. Dodge—his sister.....Phyllis Jones

Ken—his nephewEarl Fox

Hazel—his nieceLeah Wright

Miss Foote—a spinster.....Virginia Woock

Violet—Ken's sweetheart.....Bonny Richards

Phil—in love with Hazel.....Donald Bruce

Violetta—a dancerJune Morris

Belle—her friendAda Dollinger

Max—in love with Violetta....Edward Marbach

Orchid—a colored servant.....Ruth Hyland

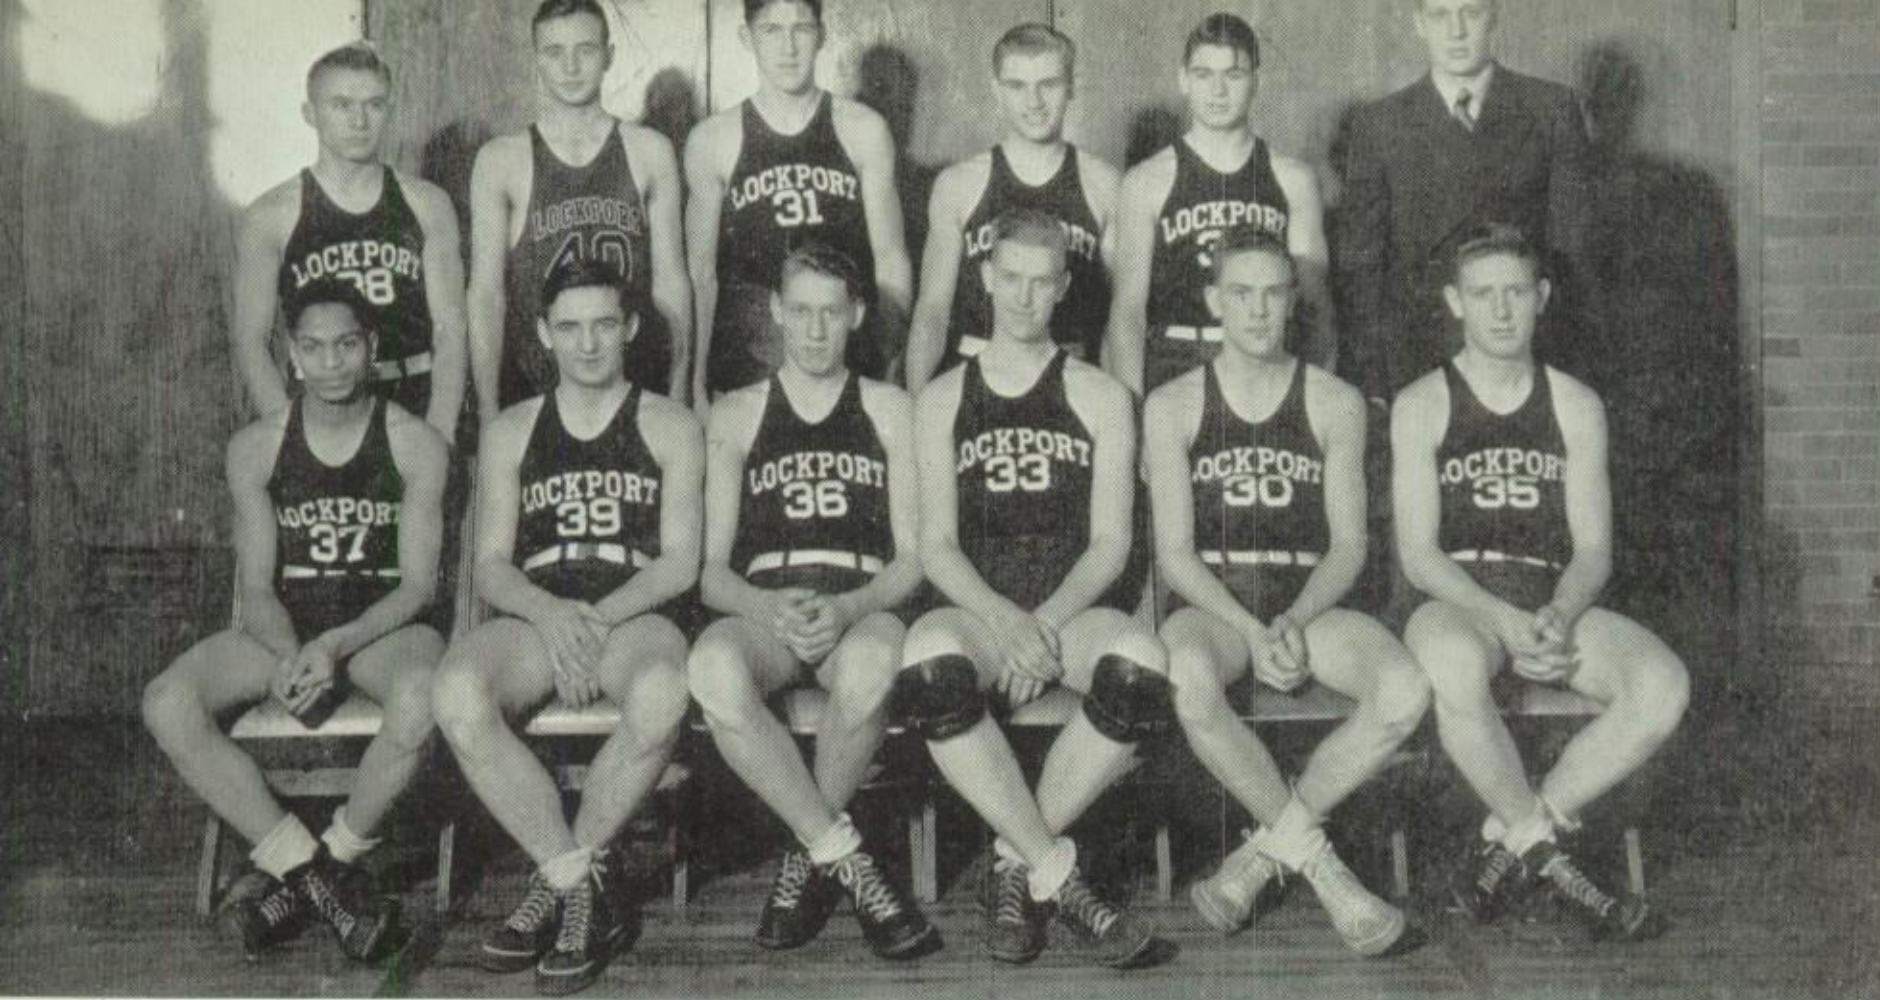

Ken hopes with the help of Violet to wheedle Uncle Homer into consenting to their marriage. As he is about to meet Violet's train, an actress phones she is dropping in with some silly letters that he had written her. Ken leaves his pal, Phil, to get rid of the actress and hurries off. Violet arrives ahead of time, consequently is mistaken for the actress, receives a very rude reprimand from Phil for pursuing Ken.

When the actress arrives she is politely received as Ken's fiancée and makes herself very much at home. Ken is in a predicament and so is Phil, for Ken's sister suspects him of having another girl. Also, there is a fiery Frenchman on the trail of the actress and a romantic old maid pursuing stubborn, self-righteous Uncle Homer. The climax is reached when Uncle Homer's old love letters turn up, just as he is about to disown Ken for his escapades.

HEAVYWEIGHT BASKETBALL 1937-1938

The Lockport heavies finished their season this year with the percentage of .518. The team seemed to acquire more ability as the season progressed—so much so that they even defeated their old foe Joliet in the Regional Tourney held at Chicago Heights, after suffering three defeats at their hands during the regular season. This is the second L. T. H. S. team to win a Regional Trophy in the history of the school.

The season's record is as follows:

CAFETERIA MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

The cafeteria management committee was elected this year by students who eat in the cafeteria during the lunch hour. Arnold Mazzuco was chosen to head the group, with Edward Cindrich, Angelo Egizio, Eleanore Johnson, Rita Rosier, Sophie Samusevich, Helen Simonich, Russell Sineni, Anna Stiglic, and Mary Zivaly.

The purpose of the committee is to see that the students have entertainment during the noon hour and to help the faculty in the management of the cafeteria. Each member has certain duties which he must perform, the work being divided equally.

The committee was formed for the first time last year. During the two years in which it has functioned, it has proved to be a great success and is very popular with the students and faculty. In the future we believe that this committee will become even more popular and helpful than it is at present.

SOCIAL HOUR

Social hours were held this last year every other Monday during the months of December, January, and February. Many attended this function at which dancing was the main feature.

There were a total of six social hours, the last being in the form of a talent show under the direction of M. L. Rodeghero.

In order to stimulate the dancing at the social hours, a series of dancing lessons were instituted after school on several nights during the week. This seemed to bring out many of the so-called "wall-flowers," and greatly improved the program of the last few social hours.

THE GIRLS' AND BOYS' GLEE CLUBS

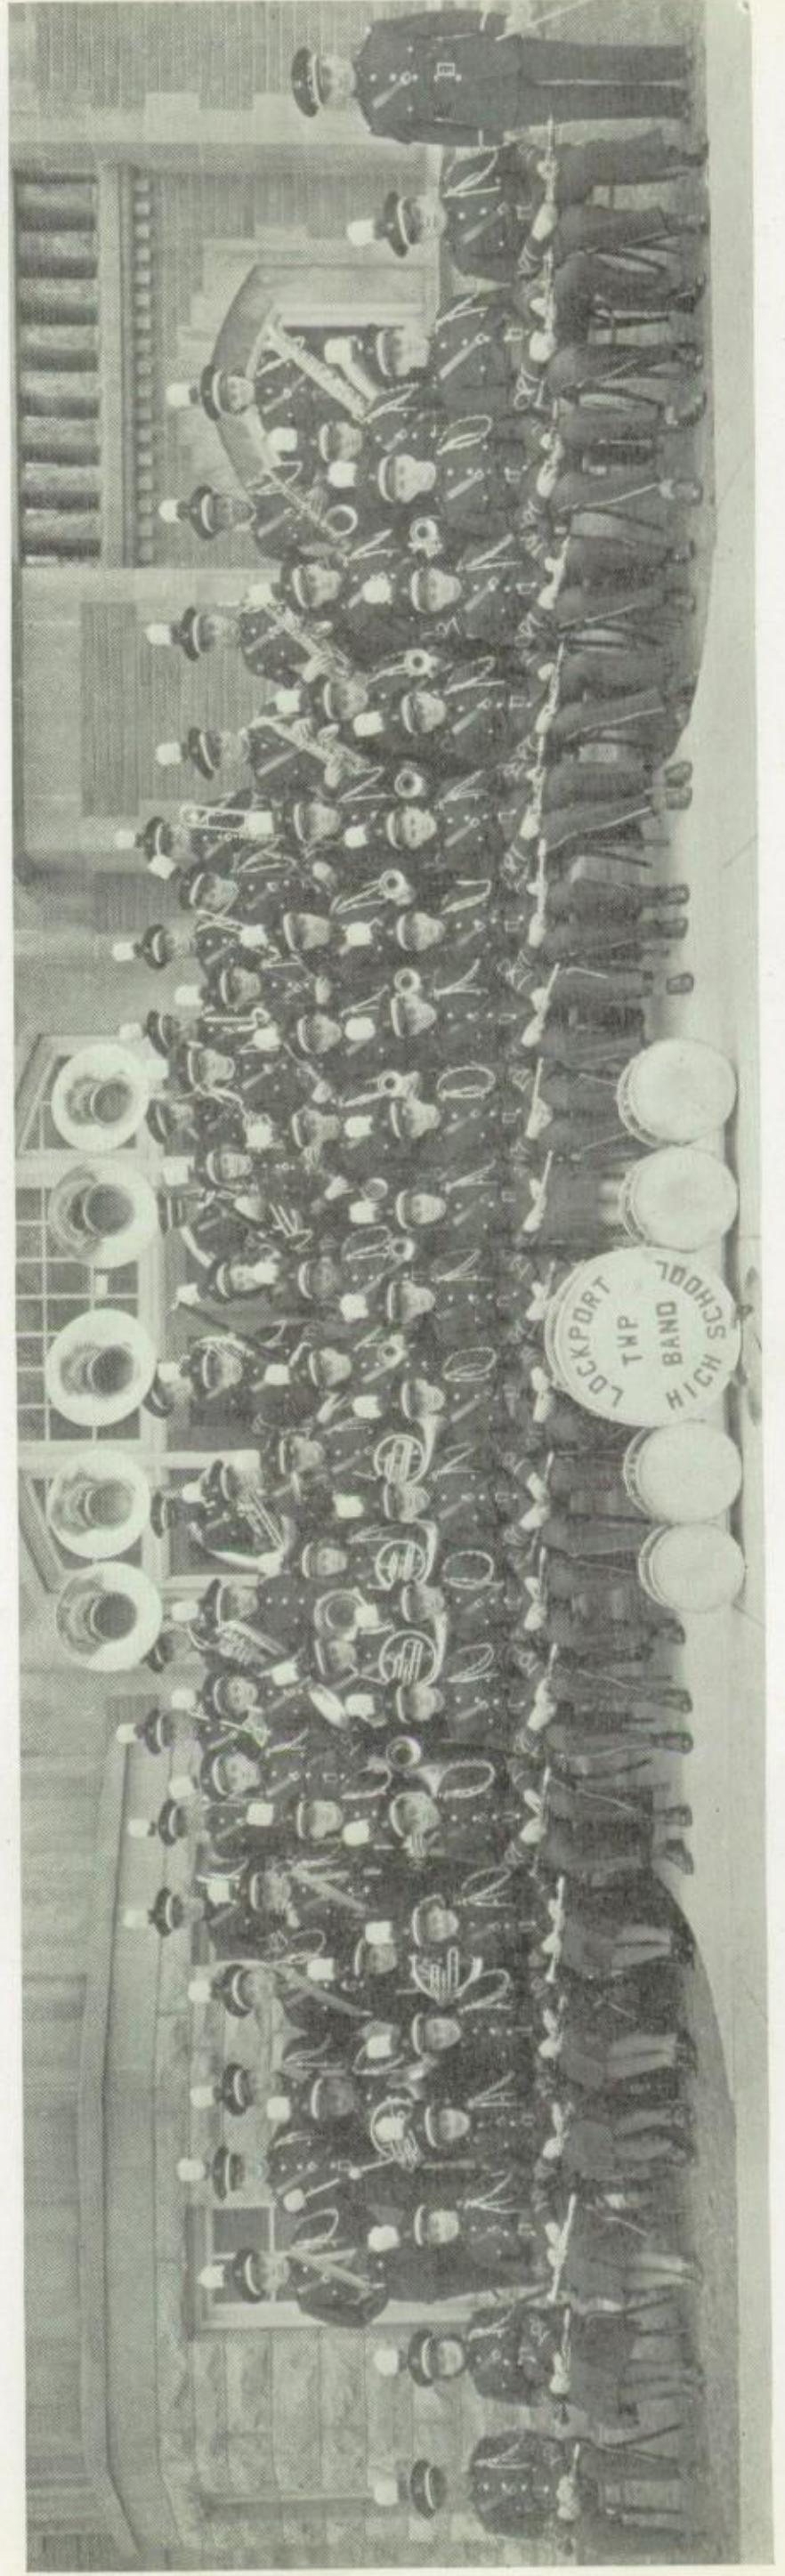

Under the direction of Miss Lucille Emmons, the high school glee clubs have progressed a great deal in the last few years.

At present they consist of 36 girls and 6 boys. These groups entertained between the acts of the junior and senior plays. At the Christmas program they presented a cantatta with Margaret Milne and Ralph Smith as soloists.

Irene Blaess is the pianist.

LOCK STAFF

Sixteen members of the senior class were chosen to undertake the responsibility of publishing the "Lock," our year book. Work was begun early in the fall under the able direction of Mr. Stephenson, our advisor. Beatrice Baxter and Arnold Mazzucco, co-editors, had the willing help and co-operation of the entire staff.

The features were originated and interestingly written by Doris Boe and Robert Krieger. The activities were published through the work of Delores Staudt and Anna Stiglic. Charles Roblee faithfully took care of all sports, while those unusual snap shots were collected by Orrin Bismarck. Walter Keipper and George Riley contributed their art talent to our book, and Elsie Wagner and Rita Wierschem tirelessly typed and re-typed material.

Last, but by no means least, Agnes Anderson, Mary L. Rodeghero, Walter Johnson, and Bob Fox did a large job in taking care of the financial and business end of our publication. To the many patrons they have secured, the staff extends its thanks for all the generous contributions which have made the "Lock" possible.

All the work was fun and as the years go by our efforts will be well rewarded by the pleasure of looking back on happy days.

TIMES STAFF

The "Times" is a four column paper published once a month by a staff chosen from the senior English classes. The paper is a member of the National Scholastic and the Illinois State High School Press Associations. The Quill and Scroll award is given to all writers who have reached a certain requirement in printed material.

The 1937-38 staff have worked with the help and encouragement of the sponsor, Mr. Pence. Rita Rosier and Beatrice Baxter, co-editors, have worked in the editorial department. James Milne has written the news stories. The sports were taken care of by Walter Keipper and Charles Roblee; and Virgie Kilmer kept the school informed about girls' sports and the G. A. A. Robert Krieger provided the paper with its laughs. Scandal? Our thanks to Agnes Anderson and Orrin Bismarck. Arnold Mazzucco edited the exchange column, and Marcella White had charge of the "Questions." Delores Murphy, Dale Cogswell, and Vincent McCalla went out and brought back the ads to cover expenses. Lorraine Mostyn and Anna Stiglic saw that everyone got a paper.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

On September 4, 1934, one hundred fifty-three freshmen entered the portals of Lockport Township High School. The necessity for class officers was soon discovered and it was but a short time before the following were elected: Edward Abday, president; Kelso Sharp, vice president; Jack Carlstrom, secretary; James Allison, treasurer.

During the first year Dorothy Mondrella and Robert Howard were lost to the class before we were hardly acquainted with them.

September, '35, rolled around to find a group of "sophisticated sophomores" entering the "institution of learning" much wiser for their year's experiences.

At this time James Allison was elected president of the class, with Ray Boland, Robert Fox, and Fred Bewersdorf to assist him.

Nineteen hundred and thirty-six—upper classmen at last!! On November 20, the class presented "Intimate Enemies" to a large and appreciative audience. A few weeks later a junior-senior party was held.

May 15, brought the the most important event of the school year—the annual junior-senior prom held at the Kinsman Country Club. Early in June the class was invited to the Pottawatomie Park, St. Charles, for the senior-junior picnic.

This year's officers were: Robert Adelmann, president; Ray Boland, vice president; Robert Krieger, secretary; and Delores Staudt, treasurer.

1937-38 senior year at last! With Robert Adelmann to lead us we elected as his assistants Walter Johnson, Fred Bewersdorf, and Delores Staudt.

Mr. Pence chose the members of the Times staff, and Mr. Stephenson the Lock staff. This year the class presented "The Ghost Parade" on May 5 and 6, and on May 14, attended the junior-senior prom at the Glen Eagles Country Club. After this class-day, baccalaureate, graduation, and the picnic followed in rapid succession.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The Senior Class of 1938 presented The Ghost Parade to a packed house on Thursday and Friday, May 5 and 6.

The cast included Beatrice Baxter, Agnes Anderson, Virgie Kilmer, Doris Boe, Irene Donnawald, Delores Murphy, Elsie Wagner, and Rita Rosier. Also James Milne, Bob Fox, Robert Krieger, Arnold Mazzucco, Joseph Brankey, Dale Cogswell, Thomas Ireson, and Charles Roblee.

Orrin Bismarck, Walter Keipper, and Ernest Bell were managers for the production, while the entire presentation was staged and directed by Mr. A. L. Johnsonius.

This three act farce took place in the office of Hotel Imperial, located in Littleboro. The play concerns the adventures of a superstitious colored boy, a small town sheriff, together with a group of guests with three h'ants.

The scenes take place in the afternoon, that evening, and after midnight when the ghosts begin to parade.

The play was written by Katherine Kavanaugh and produced through the permission of The Dramatic Publishing Company, Chicago.

They cannot wholly pass away,
How far soe'er above;
Nor we, the lingerers, wholly stay
Apart from those we love:
For spirits in eternity,
As shadows in the sun,
Reach backward into Time, as we,
Like lifted clouds, reach on.

L. T. H. S. ALUMNI DANCE IS SEASON'S HIGHLIGHT

Class of 1938 Are All Present or Send Greetings.
By DORIS BOE, Society Editor.

Due to the efforts of that peerless organizer, Dr. Charles Roblee, the class of 1938 was present one hundred per cent, in person or proxy, at that ultra of Lockport's 1948 social season, the L. T. H. S. Alumni Dance, last night in the local gymnasium. The gymnasium was beautifully decorated in the school colors of maroon and white. White crepe paper was draped over the east basket, likewise the maroon paper draped over the west basket, helped to present an unusually artistic effect. George Riley, a local plumber, chairman of the decorating committee, forgot his ladder; but his two helpers, Fred Bewersdorf and Walter Johnson, hung the paper with the greatest of ease.

Shortly after ten o'clock, the grand march was led by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adelman, 420 E. 11th Street, Lockport. Mrs. Adelman, who, before her marriage was Miss Agnes Anderson, was dressed in white flowing chiffon, trimmed in red, created by that Parisian designer, Francis Holm.

A prize waltz held during the evening was won by the famous rhythm team of swingsters, Rita Wierschem and Dan Ingram, with Professor Robert Krieger and an unidentified blonde a close second. The prizes, lifetime free checking privileges at all alumni dances, were presented by Dolores Staudt, secretary of the Alumni Association. The door prize was won by Reverend Goss, who didn't dance.

Music for the occasion was presented by that peerless leader of syncopation, and his band, Eddie Major and his Minor Keys: Thomas Ireson, Stanley Jungles, Mike Fasana, Arnold Mazzucco, Bill McSherry, LaVerne Schubert, Louis Zanzolla, and Bob Ziesemer. Other entertainment was furnished by Lockport's popular mixed quartet: Ernest Bell, Earl Kopelman, Margaret Milne, and Esther Green.

Television was provided for those who couldn't come by O. K. Bismarck, of the noted Radio & Television Co., so those unfortunates could see the crowning of the queen of the ball, Miss Irene Donnewald, of Famous Flickers, Inc.

Prominent out of town guests were: Senators Nordstrom and Carlstrom of Minnesota; Miss Kathryn Stefanech, mayor of Fairmont; Mayor Boland of Lockport; Clark Gable's greatest rival, James Allison; those two famous radio and stage comedians, Virgie Kilmer and Walter Keipper; the brilliant woman professor, Beatrice Baxter; LaVerne Weber, the wealthy owner of The Lockport Views, who returned from his Florida estate to attend; Harry Singletary, who dazzled everybody with his newly acquired sergeant's uniform in the U. S. Army; Dorothy Aspel, secretary to the president of the Public Service Company; Frances Ross, a great concert pianist; Harold Baumgartner, of "Boom" Dairy Products, New Lenox, Ill.; Delores Murphy, owner of the "Murph" Soda Shoppe in Joliet, and Don Acord, warden at Stateville.

Those unfortunates unable to attend who sent their regrets by telegram were: Virginia Wilson and Elsie Wagner, who preside as Ducky and Wucky on the Ducky Wucky program, sponsored by Howard Woock, grower and distributor of Sunkissed Oranges; Helen Stefanech and Anna Stiglic, that famous dancing team from the noted Blue Room of the Emporor Building, Chicago; Marcella White, an internationally known model; Marjorie Widner, a telephone operator; Mary L. Rodeghero, a beauty operator at the smart Beauty Salon, in Chicago; a prominent undertaker's wife, our former Elva Hatch; Harold Walling and Dale Cogswell, who are running for Congress; Vincent McCalla, a truck driver for Paul Ales; Evelyn Mance, a radio singer; Art Pesavento, a traveling salesman; Mary Doyle, a clerk at Marshall Field's; Claude Pettit and William Confer, clowns for Barnum and Bailey; Anna Cherry and Delores Bohle, the owners of the Pet Shoppe in Joliet; Mose Williams, a professional basketball player; and Ralph Porter, a famous G-man.

Several parties were held before the dance. The local chapter of Homer Gleaners held an egg nog party at the home of Joe Brankey. Local farmers who attended were: Arnold and Leonard Bertelson; Robert Fox and his wife, the former Lorraine Mostyn; James Milne, Merritt Wright, and Howard Yungels.

At the home of Ray and Dorothy Johnson, tea was served for the following guests: Helen Johnson and Stella Johnson, and their husbands, Walter and Fred Johnson, of the law firm, Johnson, Johnson, and Johnson.

A group of Chaney people were house guests of Mr. Flink so he wouldn't have to drive them home. The following were present: Mary Zivaly, Helen Simonich, Martha May, Peter Samusevich, Alex Samusevich, and Steve Popovich. The above comprise the complete faculty of the Chaney Public School.

We, the Senior Class of 1938, Lockport Township High School, County of Will, State of Illinois, thinking ourselves to be sound in mind and mature in judgment, and being desirous of settling our worldly possessions while we still have some, do bestow the following articles on those unworthy classmen who follow in our illustrious footsteps, to-wit:

WALTER JOHNSON to Mike Titre—His height and reach.
 MIKE FASANA to Al Johnson—His Ford coupe to transport Ferne Johnson.
